Benefits of working with us:

Commitment & Loyalty

Our employers tell us that our recruits are reliable, dependable and committed to their work. They also find that they take less time off.

Skill & Passion

Our recruits take immense pride and passion in their work. They also demonstrate great precision and attention to detail.

Supporting You

Employers report that they benefit from our team supporting recruits to complete job applications, prepare for interview and crucial on the job support.

We have been supporting employers to recruit and retain dedicated and loyal staff for 20 years. We see the benefit of working together.

Every day we support people who experience barriers to employment to secure jobs and work placements. We work with employers across a variety of industries to make this happen.

We see the value in working closely with employers to create opportunities for people who have Autism, ADHD, Dyslexia, learning difficulties and learning disabilities. Our job coaches and employment officers successfully support people with a range of difficulties and needs to find a job they love and to stay in that job.

As an employer, we know that your goal is to find the best talent and retain that talent. We also know that when people who face barriers to employment are fully supported they can secure a job and flourish in their role which the employer benefits from.

Let's work together to recruit talented and dedicated people that will add to the dynamic of your team. We will:

- Help you recruit new applicants
- Support applicants through interview
- Provide on the job support

We see everyone's potential, so let's see what we can offer you...
