

VENUE & ROOM HIRE

 Navigation
House

A unique setting

Built in 1866, Navigation House is the former residence of the manager of the Lagan Canal with the house remaining in that use until the last superintendent of the canal left in 1954.

The historic site boasts a tranquil and unique setting and has been tastefully renovated to offer a versatile event and meeting space.

We offer three rooms for individual hire or an entire site booking.

Navigation House is the perfect space to bring people together.

A social space

We are no ordinary space, we are a social space.

Did you know that every booking makes a positive impact?

Yes, Navigation House is a social enterprise operated by multi-award winning charitable organisation, Stepping Stones NI.

Every penny from every booking is reinvested to support people with learning disabilities and barriers to learning and employment to thrive in life through horticultural training, qualifications, well-being activities and opportunities to gain employment.

Using our services in your supply chain can help deliver against your social value outcomes.
